IT'S A BEAUTIFUL WORLD!

R' Yitzchok Feldman* walked down the street and saw something he never recalled seeing before, pink leaves! They were growing in a garden with a few shades of pink flowers, and they were stunning!

A few days later he saw another gorgeous sight: a spiral bush, so pretty and different.

Hashem treats us with exotic beautiful blossoms!

[Heard from R' Feldman]

Hashem Loves You!

I once had the great zechus to daven with HaGaon Rav Yehuda Mandel Shlita on Yom Kippur night, and he spoke for the Oilam, and said "We all must do Teshuva for one thing! That we didn't realize our own greatness! Last year you had no idea how special, great and unique you are, and that is what caused all of your Aveiros. Start listing all of your Maalos, good qualities, nonstop, and this will bring out the very best in us all."

We have very powerful tools at our disposal to bring us towards Teshuva and true Simchas HaChaim, which many do not know about.

One example is music, as the right niggun can bring a person towards Teshuva and towards Simchas HaChaim.

Music is extremely potent and powerful.

When Moshiach comes, the entire world will sing a great Shira, jubilant song to Hashem (Tehilim 96:1,2).

At the time of תחיית המתים, Resurrection of the Dead, the world will sing a very great Shira to Hashem (Yeshaya 26:19, Sanhedrin 91b).

Music can bring a person to the exalted level of Nevua, Prophecy (Vilna Gaon).

Music can uplift a person who is sad and depressed and raise them to a state of great joy and ecstasy.

Music can help someone find joy, spirituality and meaning in their life and overcome major temptations and addictions.

The final chapter of Tehillim (Chapter 150) describes praising Hashem with the totality of all ten musical instruments, and the very final verse of Tehillim concludes 'The entirety of the Neshama, soul, will praise Hashem Hallelukah.'

Through music, we can access the endless light and goodness which already belongs to us because our very own Neshama is a spark of the Endless Divine Light. Music helps us bring forth this light of our Neshama

Let us access the endless light which Hashem placed inside of our Neshama that will bring us towards true Teshuva and true Simcha!

Hashem loves us!
