

BITACHON WEEKLY

BY: RABBI YEHUDAH MANDEL SHLITA

פרשת במדבר-שבועות תשפ"ד

Don't Worry About the Criticism in Your Life

Chazal say that immediately after Boaz married Rus, he was Niftar. R' Chatzkel Abramsky Zatzal points out how without question, people were saying that he was punished for marrying a Mo'avis! We see from here that if a person does what's right in the eyes of Shamayim, there is no concern for: מה יאמרו הבריות What will people say?? [By the way, R' Chatzkel Abramsky was briefly a Talmid of the Alter of Novardok Zatzal, and indeed this is a real Novardoker Vort!]

When Chana davened for a child, she said: ומורה לא יעלה על ראשו ש"א א יא and Rashi [and Targum Yonasan] say that he should have no fear of people. We can suggest that since Shmuel anointed two Melochim, it is a major Middas Malchus not to care what people think [and indeed, Shaul lost his Malchus when he said: כי יראתי את העם ואשמע בקולם ש"א טו כד I was afraid of [the opinion of] the people].

Notice how Hashem Davka wants certain people, especially Melochim, to be in a state of criticism from others. Many great people didn't hold from Dovid even after he was Niftar, until the episode when the gates of the Bais Hamikdash refused to open up, until Shlomo davened: Open up in the Zechus of Your servant, Dovid. The idea of Malchus is to be "above" caring what people think of you, called Middas HaHish'tavus whether people praise or criticize you is "equal".

And if the Chovos Halvavos says that this Midda is Tachlis HaChamudos the most desirable Midda, then it would be appropriate for a Melech to have it. The whole idea of a Melech [who is anointed with Shemen] is being above the stupidities and vanities of Olam HaZeh. כל ישראל בני מלכים הם All Yidden are royalty! We are sometimes Davka placed in a situation where we are criticized, or we feel that people don't appreciate us.

This can even be our own family members [Dovid and Yosef both suffered from this]. How important it is for a

Every Person Has His Own Unique Kabolos HaTorah

Aseres HaDibros starts with: אָנֹכִי ה' אֱלֹהֶיךָ I am YOUR Hashem [singular] not: אֱלֹהֵיכֶם [plural]. So every Yid should feel special as if the Torah was given especially for him, and: בְּשִׁבְלֵי נְבְרָא הָעוֹלָם the entire universe was created JUST FOR ME. יְחִיד שְׁעֵשָׂה תְּשׁוּבָה מוֹחֲלִין לְכָל הָעוֹלָם כּוֹלוּ יוֹמָא פּוּ ב.

Even if just ONE person does Teshuva, the entire world is forgiven. It was given in the Midbar, a spacious place without the restrictions of a city where everyone is boxed in and feels like just another number.

Every person has his own unique Kabolos HaTorah.

Preferably, a person should learn on Shavuos as much as he can, like R' Nosson Wachtfogel Zatzal was Noheg did. But if you can't, then you should know that whatever you can do to show your appreciation for Torah is Kodesh Kodashim, and you should respect what you do! Even eating lots of cheesecake, or the Zechus of feeling frustrated when your learning and Hasmada isn't what you'd like!

The Ran says that when the Gemara says that the Churban happened because: נִשְׁלַח בְּרַכּוֹ בְּתוֹרָה תְּחִלָּה they didn't say a Bracha before learning Torah, this means that since they weren't Machshiv their own Torah enough, therefore the Torah didn't protect them, to save them from the Churban. It is hard work being Machshiv your "B'di'eved" mediocre Avoda. But the more you are Machshiv it, the bigger your Zechus. Your B'di'eved is Le'chatchila in Shamayim. Eat your cheesecake with a Shtoltz!

Even before Shavuos, decide that my Shavuos [whatever form it becomes] is the best, and I will be Zoche to all the: אִשְׁרוּת הַיּוֹם opportunities of the Yom Tov since: רְחֵמָנָא לִיבָא בְּעֵי Hashem wants our intentions, וְלֹא עָלֶיךָ הַמְּלָאכָה לְגַמּוֹר and you are not expected to do everything!

person to develop a strong connection with Hashem, and become less and less an: עֶבֶד נֶרְצָע eternal slave to: מה יאמרו הבריות What will people say?? especially at the time of Kabolas HaTorah.

The true reason why so many noble souls with tremendous potential do not get involved in Zikkui HaRabbim is because of: מה יאמרו הבריות What will people say?? For good reason, not worrying about what people say is Tachlis HaChamudos the most desirable Midda. Remember: אֵין הַתּוֹעֵלֶת וְהַנֶּזֶק מִן הַנִּבְרָא אֶלָּא מִן הַבּוֹרָא people cannot help you or harm you; only Hashem.

Novardok

After WWI there was upheaval all over Russia; the whites and reds were killing each other, and the streets were dangerous and bloody. The whites were especially anti-Semitic. The Alter of Novardok Zatzal was at a train station, and a train full of whites pulled up. The Alter's Talmid was standing next to him, and his face paled with fear. So the Alter Davka went over to the General, and asked him for a light for his cigarette!

I was told that R' Gershon would not kick out the tough Talmidim who gave him trouble. He had great hopes for them. And Novardokers pride themselves with their ability to tolerate chutzpa. Of course, everything has its limits. But a lot of their Talmidim don't bother them at all. It goes over their heads, and they Shteig in working on their Middos.

They say that the best thing you can do for your child [or Talmid] is to show your own control over yourself. When you are involved in disciplining others, you don't realize how your own age-old Ga'ava, Ka'as, Ak'shanus, and taking N'kama gets involved. R' Nosson Wachtfogel Zatzal once told me that with bad Middos you can't be M'chanech children. Of course, there is a time for being strict; and as soft as Novardokers can be, they still believe that children should know their place and should have Hachna'a.

R' Gershon was able to make a rag out of himself, and still maintain his dignity. If a different person would put himself down the way R' Gershon did, it could be a disaster. He was a Melech and a general, and at the same time he was as soft as butter and sweet as can be.

He was a non-stop smiler, because of the Simcha and sheer pleasure that all his hours and hours of Mussar gave him. He was once trying to be M'karev a depressed person, and he gave him loads of Kavod, since he considered the lack of Kavod to be the #1 cause for depression. Then he smiled to this person, hoping that his own Simcha would affect this person's sour mood.

He would do Pratim non-stop. Every move he made; was anti-Kavod. Most of his Pratim were normal behaviors, but they do the job of rebelling against the lust for recognition. Like leaving a button open, or eating heartily in public. You would never see him with a Gemara; only a Chumash or Mishnayos. However, when a beginners-Gemara was printed [it had a special translation for beginners] he would get one and make sure to be seen with it. He told me that he's embarrassed to be seen with it. It's hard to believe that he was embarrassed the same way we are. He was "doing his thing", in his lifetime-war against Kavod. No wonder he was so happy at all times! הקנאה התאנה והקבוד מוציאין את האדם מן העולם "Kavod" [literally] takes a person out of the world! Someone was once having a Machlokes with him, and he remarked: "How can you be upset with an Am-HaAretz like me?"

The Alter of Slabodka Zatzal suffered from a terrible rebelliousness in his Yeshiva, and he went through Gehinom. Yet, he never got angry, and always continued to love everybody and see good even in the worst people.

Savlanus, Savlanus, Savlanus. R' Gershon used to tell me how he tries to copy Hashem who tolerates so much evil, and yet He still gives and gives. Kindness non-stop. Always giving in. No debates!