All The Gates of Unbelievable Goodness Are Open to A Baal Teshuva

The Passuk says: "You'll outdo your fathers, and He will give you greater Brachos and Hatzlachos than your forefathers" (Seforno). Why should we do better than them? We can suggest the reason is simply because the Passuk is discussing when we will do Teshuva, and all the gates of unbelievable goodness are open to a Baal Teshuva. And Chazal say: במקום שבעלי תשובה עומדים אין צדיקים גמורים יכולין לעמוד ברכות לדב: Baalei Teshuva are even GREATER than pure Tzaddikim!

This is the most underestimated Chazal, and it is so hard to believe. How can a Baal Teshuva be better than a Tzaddik Gamur? RSRH explains the first three Kapit'lach (chapters) of Tehilim. In the first, Dovid mentions how lucky a person is if he doesn't go: בעצת רשעים in the ways of the wicked, etc. and instead he should just learn Torah and he'll be happy. In the second Kapit'el (chapter), למה רגשו גוים, he speaks about going to war against the Goyishe Derech of running after lusts etc.

The Gemara says, that these first two Kapit'lach (chapters) are really one, and they tell you to keep away from Ta'avos. And in Kapit'el (chapter) #3, Dovid speaks about the Tzaros he had from his rebellious son Avshalom, which happened to him because he was Nichshal in his own lusts when he destroyed the life of one of his own subjects, Uriyah HaChiti, by being Nichshal with his wife, Bas-Sheva!!

אני שכבתי ואישנה הקיצוני כי ה' יסמכני תהלים ג: The very fact that he woke up in the morning tells him that Hashem still loves him, and that he will return to his former Madrega of Kedusha and Tahara. It is unbelievable how Dovid is the big Baal Mussar, with two phenomenal Mussar Shmuessin against foolish Ta'avos, and his next Shmuess is about his own: מְכַשּׁוֹל stumbling with those same foolish Ta'avos (and in the worst way!)

Dovid* Is Our Amazing Inspiration for *Teshuva

One of the famous Gedolei HaPoskim of Lakewood once spoke to a person who had done the most unspeakable Chet. When the person said that he had Cha'rata, the Rav told him: "It's over, totally!" In Novardok I saw a similar M'halech, where overnight a person is

Be Dan Yourself L'kaf Zechus, And Don't Blame Yourself for Things Beyond Your Control

On the Passuk לה' אלוקינו הנסרות, The Ramban says that there are sins that people are not aware of, and although they are Nichshal a lot, nevertheless the sins belong to Hashem (in a sense) that He doesn't hold it against the sinner. I know two cases of Yungerleit who became addicted to doing what is a serious Aveira, while they were young and unaware of this.

Both their Mashgichim told them that at this point they are: אוֹנֵס וְרַחֲמָנָא פְטָרִיהּ ב"ק כח ב: innocent and cannot be blamed for something beyond their control. (However, if you have Bitachon, then it's a different picture.... and I know people who overcame the most "impossible" addictions). Unfortunately, people don't really have Emuna in Chazal who say: אוֹנֵס וְרַחֲמָנָא פְטָרִיהּ ב"ק כח ב: you cannot be blamed for something beyond your control, and they live with depressive guilt for sins that they are not responsible for.

R' Shlomo Wolbe Zatzal and the Breslover Chasidim say that a person should be Dan himself L'kaf Zechus. R' Yosef Leib Bloch Zatzal says in the name of the Chasidim that a person should write himself in the: סֵפֶר הַחַיִּים book of life. It would be well worth devoting time before Rosh Hashanah for writing down all your tremendous Zechusim, and thanking Hashem for them. That should make you be Zoche b'Din.

Be Dan yourself L'kaf Zechus even to the extreme. This will help you be Zoche b'Din, when you show Hashem how thankful you are for making you such a wonderful person, instead of being an ingrate who's always kvetching about all his mistakes and Aveiros (which is a Yetzer Hara; unless it has a Tachlis).

totally 100% kosher, since he simply and quickly did Teshuva.

People view Teshuva as a “bear” (R’ Nosson Wachtfogel Zatzal warns about this) and this is a major barrier blocking a person’s Shteiging. His Yetzer Hara loves to constantly remind him of his bitter past, and all his Maalos are quickly forgotten or almost non-existent in his mind, since they all “go over his head”.

For good reason we say: אורי ה' לְדוֹד in Y'mei Elul, since Dovid is our amazing inspiration for Teshuva. Look how he says: י אָבִי וְאִמִּי עָזְבוּנִי וְה' יֹאסֶפְנִי תְהִלִּים כִּי that even his parents, who are the main support of every human, forsook him. He’s got everything going wrong in his life, being an Admoni like Eisav HaRasha, and of Mo’avi blood, with an unending list of powerful enemies (who held him to be a Rasha!) throughout his turbulent life!

Dovid is so perfect for everyone. And in our own lives, we need to respect our own pecklach and issues, our weaknesses and our stormy past, just like our Melech, Dovid is the most respected type of human (like the Halacha states: הַמֶּלֶךְ הַמְּרֻדֵּן בְּמַלְכוּתוֹ חַיִּב מֵיָתֵד one who rebels against the king is immediately sentenced to death).

Look how Hashem wants so much to be M’chazek us, by giving us a Dovid for a Melech; now every schnook and every bum and every nebach feels comfortable and has hope!

Royalty Means Moving on Despite Your Mistakes in Life

And Davka a person with such an embarrassing history is our king?! A Yid has to learn to respect his pitfalls and mistakes, his failures and disadvantages; only these can make him truly great, when he isn’t Nis’pael from them, and he moves on like Dovid HaMelech, who doesn’t get fazed by his outrageous sins!

This is exactly the Gadlus HaAdam. Adam means “Adama” earth, the lowest form of the: הָאָרֶץ world, yet, the Adam is the: הַקֶּרֶן הַבְּרִיאָה “crown of the world” i.e., the glory, the beauty, and the greatness of all of Hashem’s wonderful world! So no more looking down at our “outrageous” mistakes in life. Moving on despite them will give us true royalty!

Novardok

The Amazing Power of Bitachon

I was told a story about my mentor, Rabbi Weiss of Novardok, who had been collecting in the USA for his Yeshiva. When he returned to Europe, he was accused of evading the draft. He was to go on trial, and was heading for serious trouble (jail sentence, etc.). He came to his Rebbi all concerned. His Rebbi was an unusual Baal Bitachon, and dynamically told him the famous Passuk: עַד אֵנָה יִנְאָצְנִי הַעָם הַזֶּה וְעַד אֵנָה לֹא יִאֲמִינוּ בִּי בְּכֹל After all Hashem has done for you, how dare you be afraid?! He told me that he put “blinders on his eyes”, and he became a real Tamim who is sure that Hashem will save him (he learns lots of Mussar on Bitachon). Sure enough, at the trial the prosecutor decided to become his defense lawyer, and he was found not guilty!

Hashem Desperately Wants to Make Us All Happy

Hashem is happy to no end when He sees Klal Yisroel doing the right thing. As it says לְשׁוֹשׁ עֲלֶיךָ לְטוֹב לְךָ לְטוֹב. This is His whole desire in making this beautiful world, to give Simcha to His creations, as it says: עוֹלָם הֶסֵד the world was created for Chesed. It is extremely important to realize this. It skyrockets your Bitachon level, and your general positive-thinking and thankfulness. You realize that Hashem desperately wants you to have more thankfulness and much more Bitachon, so He can give you loads of Schar.

Your whole world looks different, when you realize how Hashem wants so, so much, just to make us all happy. And this is everything, and it is the #1 Yesod of the entire world, like the Mesilas Yesharim says: שְׂהָאָדָם לֹא נִבְרָא אֶלָּא לְהִתְעַנֵּג Man was created ONLY to have pleasure! Those who copy Hashem and are happy with other people’s successes, are the luckiest people in the world.

Somebody told me that I’m a liberal. I told him: “Do you know how hard it is to be such a liberal?” My Rabbeim taught me that when you build yourself up, you are breaking your Middos; and you get loads of Schar.
